WORLD MARRIAGE DAY :

The celebration of World Marriage Day in the Diocese of Burlington will take place on Sunday February 3, 2019, 10:00a.m. mass at St. Joseph Cathedral with Bishop Coyne as celebrant. Recognition will be given to those couple celebrating their milestone anniversaries in the year 2019. Couples can choose to be recognized in their parish and receive a certificate on the following Sunday, February 10th. Please register to the office of evangelization and Catechesis, Marriage and Family Life at www.vermontcatholic.org or contact the parish office in Bradford.

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

(its relevance in our Christian life)

This celebration reminds us of our own baptism, our commitment to renounce Satan and to live lives pleasing to God. By virtue of our baptism, we have been privileged to become sons and daughters of the Father. But along with that privilege comes great responsibility to the church and to the kingdom of God. So let us re-evaluate our task and mission in this world so that we may live substantial and meaningful lives. All of us should take the road to sacrifice, the long, difficult, narrow and winding road. Only few brave would take it. Many would rather take the road of comfort and pleasure, the easy, wide, well-paved and straight—straight to hell. What road are you now? Who are your companions? Where are you heading to? The Good Lord has shown us the way. He has shown us the truth as well as the life. Jesus is the way, the truth and the life. LET US FOLLOW HIM!
